Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Friday 05 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mainly dry.

This Evening and Tonight:
Most places will stay dry and where skies clear a frost will develop. The Northern Isles and Western Isles could see a few light showers.

Saturday:
The mainland generally dry with light winds and some sunny spells. Cloudier and breezier for the Isles with some patchy rain or showers.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Sunday cloudier generally with occasional rain. This lighter and patchier on Monday. Occasional rain on Tuesday, becoming heavy in northwest later where southerly gales will develop.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.